AT a Meeting of the Creditors of the deceased William Orr, Merchant in Ayr, held by them at Ayr, in Consequence of Advertisements in the News-papers, the 7th of January last,—the Meeting having taken into their Consideration, that, owing to the Creditors not yet giving in complete Notes of their Debts, and that Mr. Orr's Subject was not then fully come to the Knowledge of the Creditors, so as an exact State of his Affairs could be made out, it was the unanimous Opinion of the Meeting, That it would be for the Benefit of the Creditors, that the following joint Measures for operating their Payment, and that the most effectual Way of carrying that into Execution, was by vesting Power in Trustees to call in the Debts, and bring the Effects on Hand to Sale. They therefore unanimously nominated and appointed Messr. John Henry, John M'Haffie, and David Scott, all Merchants in Ayr, Scotland, to be their Trustees for the Ends and Purposes before mentioned: And it was then agreed, that unless these Resolutions were acceded to by the whole Creditors of the said deceased William Orr, that the same were not binding upon either the Creditors present or the Trustees.——The Trustees named do therefore hereby intimate to such of the Creditors of the said deceased William Orr, that were not present at said Meeting, not only the unanimous Opinion of the Creditors then present, but that, in Consequence of that Meeting, they have caused make out a Trust-deed and Deed of Accession, which are lodged in the Hands of Messr. Stevenson and Jamieson, Glasgow, Mr. Thomas Adair, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, and with the said Trustees at Ayr, to be subscribed by each of the Creditors as may accede thereto; intimating also, that such Creditor or Creditors not subscribing the same, on or before the 25th of February instant, shall then be understood to have acceded thereto, unless they shall signify their Disapprobation thereof by Writing under their Hands, directed to one of the above Trustees, betwixt and the Day before mentioned; after which the Trustees shall consider themselves as having full Power from all the Creditors to act as they judge for the Interest of the Creditors.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing Date on or about the 17th Day of November last, was awarded and issued against Oliver Burton, late of Ratcliffe-highway in the County of Middlesex, Carpenter, Dealer and Chapman; This is to give Notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, superseded.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Lewis Chauvet and Peter Turquand, late of the Old Jewry in the City of London, Merchants and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts Estate and Effects, on Thursday next, precisely at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the London Tavern, Bishopsgate-street; when and where a General State of the Bankrupt's Affairs, and the Accounts of the Receipts and Disbursements of the said Assignees, will be produced, for their Perusal and Inspection, previous to declaring the intended Dividend on the following Day.
